SELLING TIPS

- Floral designs have always been a must for interior designers. Everything Lorena Canals loves becomes a textile design, hence the English Gardens Collection, with its colorful flowers reminiscent of a botanical garden.
- It's been a while since Lorena Canals has let her love for florals show in her collections. This time she wanted to rekindle her passion for nature with refreshed, stylish designs which have an air of elegance.
- The richness of textures and colors that we can see in the classic English Gardens Collection has inspired the designer to create a collection with the largest number of accessories.
- Nature teaches us the importance of small details, and this point is highlighted by the washable rugs from this collection, with their handmade, delicate and elaborate finishes, which provide elegance and sophistication.
- The mixture of shades, such as rose, mauve and white, brings harmony and finesse to home decor.
- A new type of elaborate fringe has been added to the rugs of this collection, knotted one by one by hand.

- Yarns in a mixture of colors have been used to create some of the details of the rugs and accessories, such as the stems of the flowers, which gives even more value to the craftsmanship of each design.
- The woven flowers on the rugs and on the pouffe from this collection have been carefully perfected with scissors and give a slight relief with respect to the rest of the designs.
- Given the success of the pouffe from the Early Hours Collection, we are now launching a new, more sophisticated design.
- This collection includes new cotton garlands to hang on the wall, which are made up of beautiful, handmade flowers.
- The new baskets in this collection have a singular design with irregular petals around them. They can be used to store any type of object or as a regular plant pot.
- In addition to the storage baskets, 3 small baskets with handles and floral details have been added to this collection, rounding up the wide variety of accessories that Lorena Canals has launched this season.
- All rugs and accessories from the English Gardens Collection combine with the Air Natural blankets and cushions, the Hippy Stars Pink cushion, the Earth Canyon Rose and Tie Dye Wood Rose wall hangers and the new accessories from the Tribute to Cotton Collection, such as the Cotton Boll cushion and the wall garland.
