THE COLLECTION

Be your own hero!

Artist Edgar Plans collaborates with Woolable by Lorena Canals® bringing his iconography to a collection of washable wool rugs. Superhero characters and other pieces of his work hop from the canvas onto rugs to create textile pieces that allow you to walk barefoot on a painting. Under the motto of "Be your own hero", Edgar Plans' characters are superheroes who inspire us to take action for creating a better world. Do you dare to bring out your superpowers and be your own hero?

Once again, Lorena Canals comes to the world of art, as one of her greatest passions, to create a new wool rug collection – this time hand in hand with the acclaimed international artist, Edgar Plans. His urban-inspired art, filled with iconic characters of his own, is all the rage among his most staunch followers, with a presence in the most prestigious museums and art fairs worldwide.

In this collection, released under the Woolable by Lorena Canals® brand, the artist's iconography is reflected on the surface of the rugs, giving a new twist to home decoration. These designs bring an arty touch to children's rooms or a nod to the artist in any other space in the house, for the enjoyment of his fans. Characters as iconic and with a certain reminiscence of the eighties as his animal superheroes or his scribbled ghost, as well as fragments of works such as the Wall Notes series, jump from the canvas to the rugs. The brushstrokes of color are transformed into woolen threads that are hand tufted on a cotton canvas, versioned with the color palette of the Woolable range. Thus, Lorena Canals manages to bring the creativity of Edgar Plans to a textile painting on which we can walk in bare feet.

Edgar Plans' characters tell stories of animal superheroes that emerge from nature with a message of hope. From the innocent gaze of a child, Plans invites us to open our eyes and to be our own superheroes, contributing our bit to transform the world and inspiring us to achieve our dreams, as expressed in his work: "I am a hero! I have superpowers!".

"I have always liked street art, urban art. It is an art that runs free, just like when children create. And I wanted to transform it to capture it in my paintings. I am currently internationally recognized for my characters, the animal heroes, and for my colorful, expressive and lively style."
